

REEDSBURG UTILITY COMMISSION
Application for Streamlined Global Resale Authority

ATTACHMENT 2

Response to Question 14: Ownership

The Reedsburg Utility Commission is an municipal government agency of the City of Reedsburg, Wisconsin (population: 8,573). The Reedsburg City Hall is located at 134 South Locust Street in Reedsburg, Wisconsin 53959. As a municipal government agency, the Reedsburg Utility Commission would be deemed to be owned 100 percent by the City of Reedsburg. None of the 8,573 or so individual citizens of the City of Reedsburg would be deemed to hold a direct or indirect ownership interest of ten percent (10%) or greater in the Reedsburg Utility Commission.

The Reedsburg Utility Commission (“Reedsburg”) does not have any interlocking directorates with any foreign carrier.

Response to Question 15: Authorization and Facilities Sought

Reedsburg has not previously received authority under Section 214 of the Communications Act. With the grant of this application, Reedsburg will have international global switched resale authority under Section 214 of the Communications Act.

Reedsburg is not applying for authority to acquire facilities or to provide services not covered by Sections 63.18(e)(1) and Section 63.18(e)(2) of the Commission’s Rules. In fact, Reedsburg is seeking only global resale authority under Section 63.18(e)(2) of the Rules. Reedsburg will not construct, acquire or operate its own international facilities, and therefore is not providing a description of facilities or an environmental assessment.

Reedsburg certifies that it will comply with the terms and conditions of Sections 63.21 and 63.23 of the Commission’s Rules.
